| Cadet Program | Dress & Uniform | 800.10 |

I. PURPOSE:

This policy defines the appropriate dress and uniforms for the Campbell County Fire Department Cadet Program.

II. SCOPE:

This policy applies to all Cadets when representing the CCFD and the CCFD Cadet Program.

III. POLICY:

1. Cadets will be expected to wear the appropriate dress including: appropriate footwear, duty pants, Cadet shirt, and any other gear needed for all trainings and fire department functions.
2. When attending a Cadet function not requiring a standard uniform, Cadets must dress in accordance with the school dress code.
3. For any other function of the CCFD, a Cadet will contact his/her supervisors for dress requirements.
4. A standard Cadet uniform consists of blue BDU pants/green Nomex pants, Cadet t-shirt, blue web belt, and 8 inch black lace-up work boots.
5. After attending three Cadet meetings, new Cadets will receive the following uniform furnished by the CCFD: BDU pants/green Nomex pants, Cadet t-shirt, blue web belt. Cadets must furnish all other items at their own expense.
6. Cadets will be expected to wear their hair in accordance with the CCFD Grooming Policy.
